Enclosed for the Bureau are the original and five copies of an LHM, dated as above, captioned, "Anthony Eden, Earl Mountbatten, Anthony Nutting; Information Concerning."

The LHM is classified "~~Secret~~" since the original information [redacted] was so classified.

NY T-1 is [redacted] who was interviewed by SA CHARLES P. WINDER. [redacted]

[redacted] was most cordial and after the reason for the contact was explained to him, stated that he had "a memory of the information", but did not recall the person who furnished the specific report. He said he had (C)

received a number of such reports pertaining to the alleged homosexuality of ANTHONY EDEN, EARL MOUNTBATTEN and ANTHONY NUTTING. In regard to the original source of the information, "A former Central European diplomat," [redacted] said this was the standard cover used by his organization for Czechoslovakian or Hungarian diplomats, active or inactive, and, therefore, does not specifically identify the source. (S)(u)

[redacted] then attempted, through a card index maintained by him, to identify the source but was unsuccessful. [redacted] explained that he had maintained his finest records regarding his intelligence apparatus as he had been authorized to do so. (S)(u)

[redacted] then stated that Dr. TIBOR ECKHARDT, N.Y. [redacted] who had been Chief Editor, Central European Desk, for his organization, would be the only person from whom the identity of the source could be obtained. He then telephonically contacted Dr. ECKHARDT, who resides in NYC, and obtained the information set forth in the LHM. (S)(u)

[redacted] said ECKHARDT recalled two additional reports re ANTHONY EDEN, two re MOUNTBATTEN and three re NUTTING, all relating to their homosexuality. (S)(u)

[redacted] said that he would not divulge the source's identity to any organization except this Bureau. He briefly stated that he had previous difficulty with [redacted] insistence he identify all his sources of information to them, which [redacted] refused to do. Further, [redacted] said he believes that information is "leaked" [redacted] to the Soviets. (S)(u)

[redacted] wandered out loud as to why inquiry was being made and speculated this Bureau's contact with him was possibly related to some reason connected with an interview he had on 3/14/68, with CAL MC CRYSTAL, 710 Northumberland St., Teaneck, NJ, who is employed by the "London Sunday Times." According to [redacted] MC CRYSTAL was seeking information regarding French and British Intelligence Operations (u)
